

ARE YOU
IN THE CIRCLE?

Established as an institution dedicated to spurring intellectual inquiry in the region, the National Museum of Singapore is the oldest of its kind in Singapore, with a history dating back to its inception in 1823. The museum has grown alongside the nation and continues to be a well-loved institution by many generations of Singaporeans. This iconic institution is committed to being the people's museum, bringing both local and international perspectives to Singapore through its exhibitions and programmes.

FOUNDERS' CIRCLE AT THE NATIONAL MUSEUM OF SINGAPORE

Our Founders are champions of the National Museum of Singapore. They are passionate about the Museum's work, and together with the staff at the museum they make the Museum a centre of excellence, whether it is curating world-class exhibitions, conservation, or developing its learning and events programmes.

As a Founders' Circle member, you are part of this extraordinary group. Your contributions and influence will provide invaluable support and enable the National Museum of Singapore to continue to be a respected, world-class cultural institution.

Join the Founders' Circle today to be part of this extraordinary group.
